A SEMINAR on 'Ragging: An Act of a Sick Mind' was organised at Suretech College of Nursing (SCON) in collaboration with Bahishal Shikshan Mandal, (MUHS) Nasik. The seminar focused on ragging, its effects and also highlighted the measures to be taken against ragging. The Guest Speaker was Dr Suresh Chari, Director, Research and Medical Education Technology, NKP Salve Institute of Medical Sciences (NKP-SIMS). Dr Suresh Chari guided the students about moral values and attitudes which they need to inculcate in their life. The programme was organised under the guidance of Mercy Anjore, Incharge Principal, SCON and Organising Secretary Anshul Vishwakarma with her team. It was a very interactive session and a good number of students raised relevant questions which the speaker addressed with valuable answers. Nikita Usendi, faculty (SCON) hosted the seminar and Dipti Bondre proposed the vote of thanks.
